

PRELUDE TO GENOCIDE

ARUSHA, RWANDA, AND THE FAILURE OF DIPLOMACY

BY DAVID RAWSON

ADST-DACOR DIPLOMATS AND DIPLOMACY SERIES, volume 66

- Ohio University Press, Studies in Conflict, Justice, and Social Change
- November 2018, 320 pp, 1 illus., chronology, notes, bibliography, index
- Cloth $65, paper $35 (ADST& DACOR members & guests $55 and $30)

“In lucid prose, Rawson weaves an informative, readable story of the complicated diplomatic efforts leading to the Arusha Accords of 1993. Drawing on vast documentation as well as his personal knowledge of the context, he provides a valuable perspective on the challenges—and ultimate failure—of the efforts to achieve peace. This thoughtful work adds important insights to our understanding of the road to ruin in Rwanda.” —CATHARINE NEWBURY, author of The Cohesion of Oppression
